Elizabeth C. Newport

The one who teaches can light the lamp of learning in students only when it has been lighted in his life. No person can stipulate characteristics for a pupil or limit the subjects that are taught; the instructor must be prepared by what he has learned for any situation. With his cultivation of knowledge, a teacher must have the desire to fulfill the highest aspects of his profession. His motivation must be unselfish, and he must always be loyal to the ideals that all teachers claim as their own. Mrs. Newport, because you possess these qualities—preparedness, motivation, loyalty—the 1963 annual staff publishes the SHIELD in honor of you.

Mrs. Newport is a staunch supporter of Spartan athletic and academic activities. Whether it is a football, basketball, or baseball game, she is in there cheering for her team. One of Mrs. Newport's duties is the sponsorship of the Future Teachers' Club; through it she has helped many White Station students become teachers. Mrs. Newport aids the seniors each year with her infinite knowledge of scholarships. She is never too busy to counsel a college-bound student. Because Mrs. Newport is a friend of the students and faculty of White Station, she merits and receives our love and appreciation.

Mrs. Newport's advice is invaluable to students as they plan for their future.

A true and loyal Spartan, Mrs. Newport always attends football games.

Board of Education

Mr. E. C. Stimbert
Superintendent of Memphis City Schools

The school system of Memphis has established and achieved many worthy goals. Because of this we students have benefited. It is only fitting that we pay tribute to the leaders responsible for the growth and development of our schools. The Board of Education places each student in a scholastic world where he is free to learn as much as he is able. It guides him toward the complete education, and he must look with gratitude upon those who offer this opportunity. For the leadership of the past and the promise of the future, the SHIELD offers its thanks.

The Board of Education moves forward in its new building.

Members of the Board of Education are, standing, Mr. Julian Bordurant, Mr. John T. Shea, and seated, Mrs. Lawrence Coe, Mr. William Galbreath, and Mrs. Arthur N. Seesel.

Staff members are, standing, Mr. Felix Oswalt, Mr. Lee Thompson, Mr. Morgan Christian, and seated, Mr. Harry B. Sharp, Mr. E. C. Stimbert, and Mr. John P. Freeman.

Mr. Rush W. Siler
Principal

To Mr. Rush W. Siler, White Station High School is deeply indebted. It is through his continuous striving for improvement in every phase of school life that White Station has attained its outstanding position among Memphis high schools. Foremost in the mind of Mr. Siler is a concern for providing the best for the students of White Station—whether it be in the field of academic learning, athletics, or extracurricular activities.

Along with his commendable work as principal of White Station, Mr. Siler is also recognized for his achievements in community and civic organization. In the past he has served as president of the East Memphis Kiwanis Club and has served as president of the Memphis Principals' Association.

Certainly White Station is fortunate in having a man of such fine character and ability to guide and lead our school in the educational paths of the future.

Mr. Gilbert came to White Station as a coach and general science teacher. Because of his knack in guiding and directing his pupils, he soon began serving as guidance counselor. As the needs and responsibilities of the administration of White Station grew, he moved into the position of assistant principal. Each day he assists Mr. Siler in the routine procedures of a principal, and together they initiate and direct the plans which help White Station progress and become a better school.

Mr. Gordon L. Gilbert
Assistant Principal

Mr. Siler supervises orderly class change.

Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Siler work together for the benefit of White Station.

Guidance Counselors

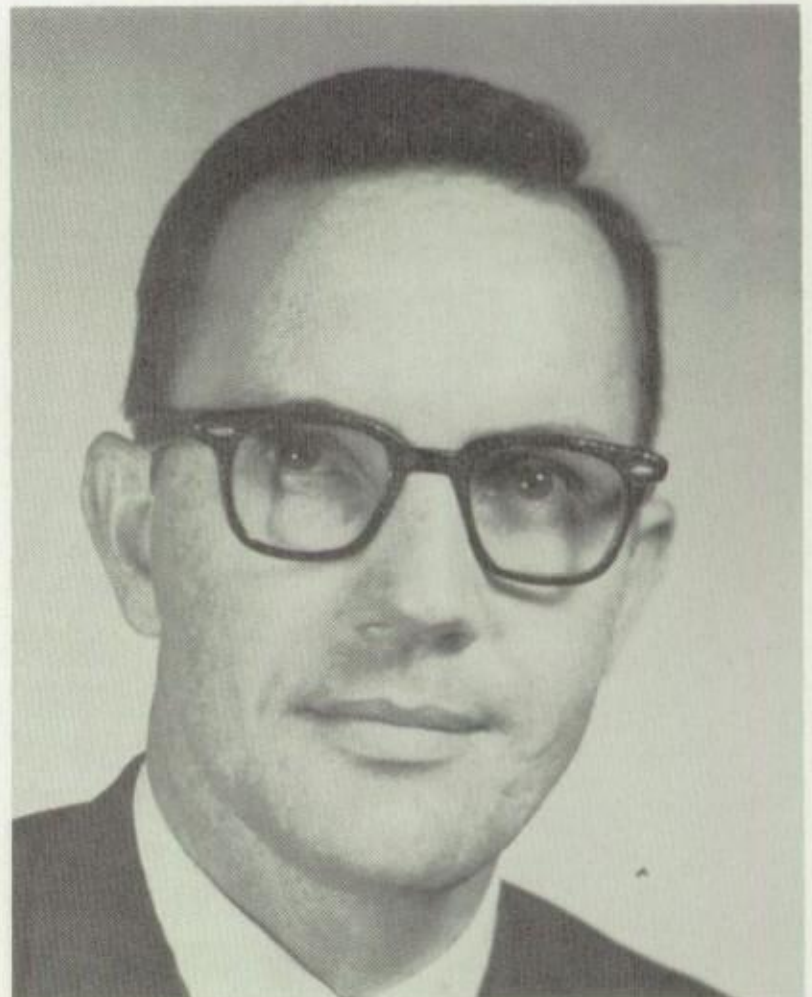

Mr. Crain and Mrs. McGinnis find a full time job guiding and counselling the students of White Station. Seniors spend many hours in the guidance office looking through college catalogues and vocational literature as they learn of opportunities available after graduation. With college entrance examinations and college registration becoming more complicated each year, students find the counsel and advice of Mr. Crain and Mrs. McGinnis invaluable. Their willingness to guide and assist show their genuine concern for each student's problem, no matter how big or small. White Station is indeed grateful for their dedicated service.

Mr. Crain and Mrs. McGinnis spend many hours helping seniors prepare for college.

Secretaries

"This is one time that balance sheet came out right!" chortles Miss Hipp.

"Let's see who made a mistake on his yellow sheet today," crows Mrs. Bankston.

Miss Jane Hipp and Mrs. Virginia Bankston are always busy solving the problems of students and teachers. For them each day is filled with constant interruptions as they try to fulfill their responsibilities as secretaries at White Station. Whether it is money from Honor Society dues, a Key Club project, or paper sales, Miss Hipp willingly accepts all deposits. She handles all financial statements and sees that each school organization is informed of their financial standing. On some days Mrs. Bankston fears she will never be able to complete the task of phoning all of the absentees. Every morning brings even stranger requests for dismissals. Filling out insurance forms and issuing books to absent-minded pupils occupy much of Mrs. Bankston's time.

Certainly without the patience and faithfulness of these two women White Station could not be such a well-organized school.

"He has a case of WHAT?"

Meet Our

Whether eating in the cafeteria, conjugating a Spanish verb, laboring over ungraded tests, cheering a Spartan team, or helping a student in the library, White Station teachers continually influence, direct, and guide the students. They never hesitate to act when the need arises or to let the students solve their own problems when this is more efficacious. With a thorough knowledge of what they teach

"Chivalry is not dead," quoth Mrs. Millard, "but the motivation has changed."

"And then the frog heart fell right out on the floor."

and with ability to present the subject matter well, teachers leave an indelible impression. Students at White Station need never fear that the ideas and qualities impressed upon them are anything but the best.

The SHIELD staff is proud of the teachers at White Station and wishes to set aside this portion of its publication to honor them.

"Thank Goodness I'm not taking trigonometry for credit!"

"Do you think there is enough room in the lineup for us?"

Raising the flag at Iwo Jima, swabbing down the deck, singing "Jingle Bells" in lands far and near—these are some of the activities at White Station. These events began the first day of school with IBM registration and will not end, for they will live on in the hearts of the students. Rusty and Camille will never forget the day the Hall of Fame was announced, and they became Mr. and Miss White Station.

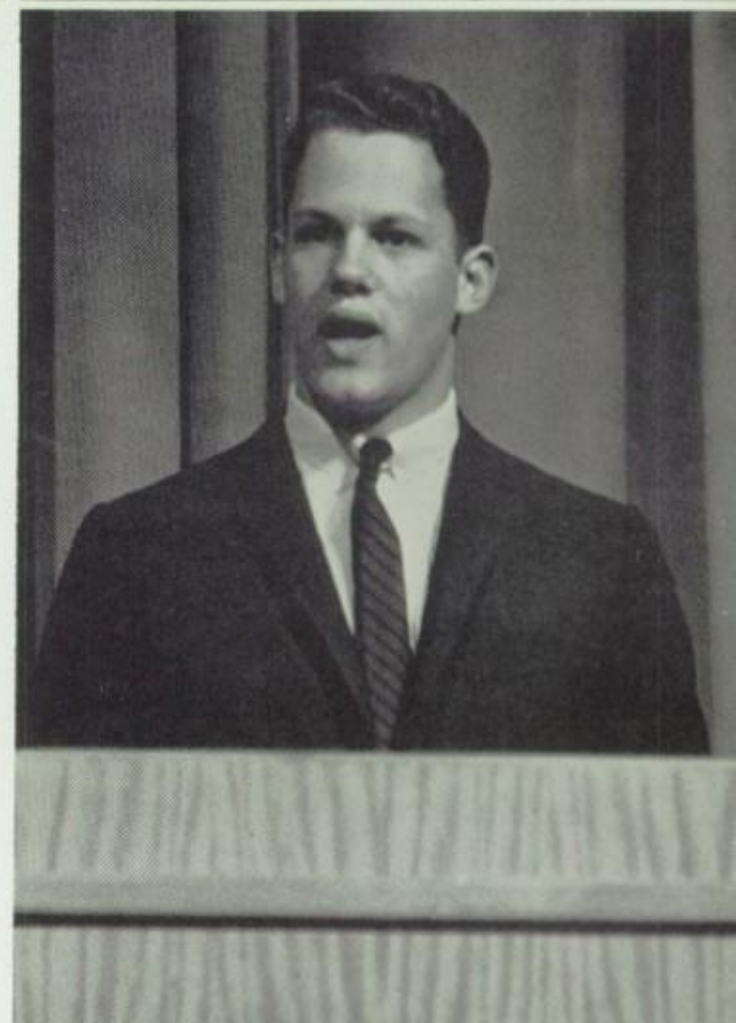

Although the Spartan football team did not win all its games, the loyal fans kept their spirit and were present at every game. The science fair proved that White Station's students were scholars.

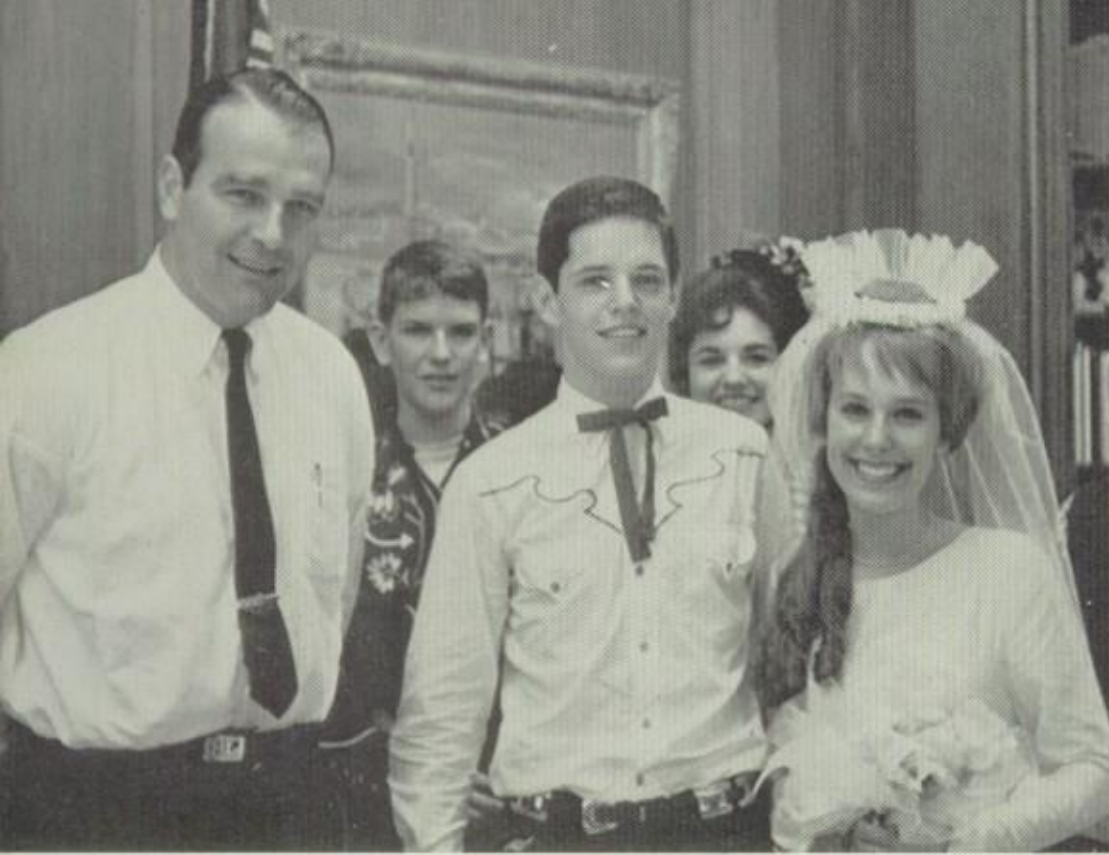

As Student Council president, Ken Glazer presided over many excellent assemblies that were put on by White Station students. Mr. Siler proudly accepted the Freedom Shrine, which was given to us by the East Memphis Exchange Club. Socially-minded Spartans danced until the wee hours at the successful Prom and the Homecoming Dance, and White Station actors and actresses, like Pat McLaughlin, staged our better-than-Broadway plays.

The willingness to work and the enthusiasm of all Spartans has brought White Station fame and honor.

The members of the White Station Speech and Music departments experienced something which many professional entertainers never know—a standing ovation! This theatrical rarity came at the curtain of each performance of Oklahoma on May 3 and 4, 1962. It was a well deserved tribute for a job well done.

Without exception the large cast, headed by Gene Wilkins and Jeannie Sheffield, performed with a grace and confidence that lent a professional air to the entire production. The two "stars" of the production have gone to bigger and better things. On the strength of his performance Gene Wilkins was signed as a regular member of the Front St. Theatre Company. Jeannie Sheffield has been signed by ABC-Paramount as a recording artist. Other notable performances were turned in by Warner Moore as Will;

Betty McKee as Ado Annie; Kay Webb as Aunt Eller; Joe Akin as Ali Hakim; and Larry Lobaugh as Judd. A well-rehearsed and beautiful-costumed chorus backed the principals with energy and know-how.

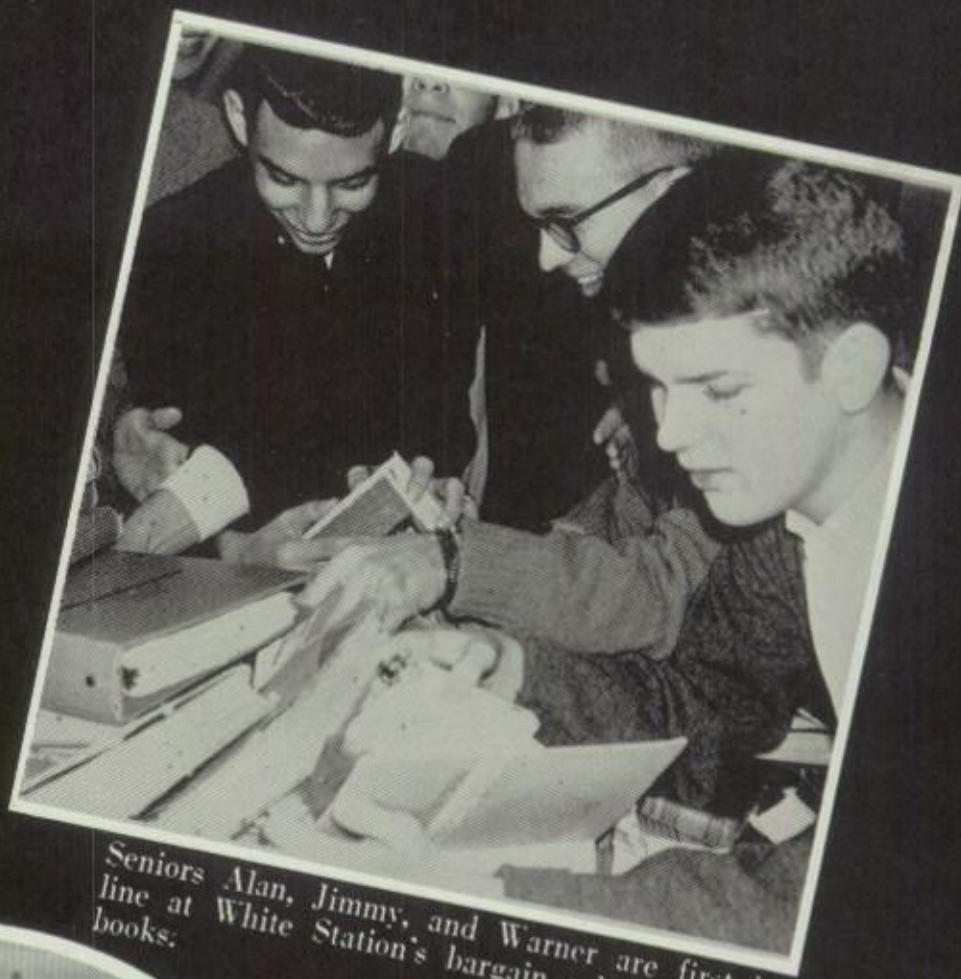

Pride was reflected in the faces of Mrs. Jackie Rogers, choreographer; Mr. Nick Vergas, Band Director; Mrs. Belle Fuller Walker, Choral Director; and Mr. Eugene Crain, Stage Director for a performance which will certainly be a challenge in the years to come.

The combined effort was praised far and wide as a truly great achievement. Henry Loeb, Mayor of Memphis, had a command performance in his office to declare a Youth Activity week. His proclamation was a fitting tribute to a group of talented students.

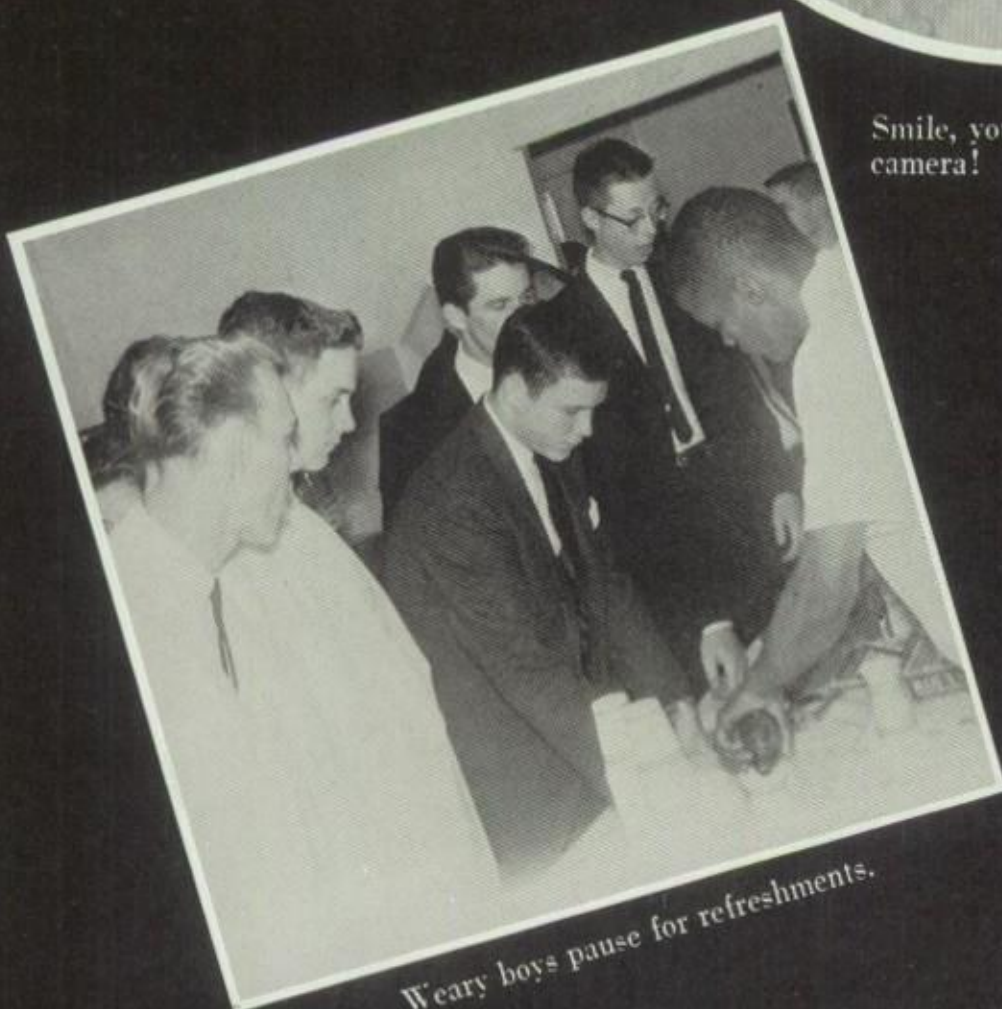

And away we go!

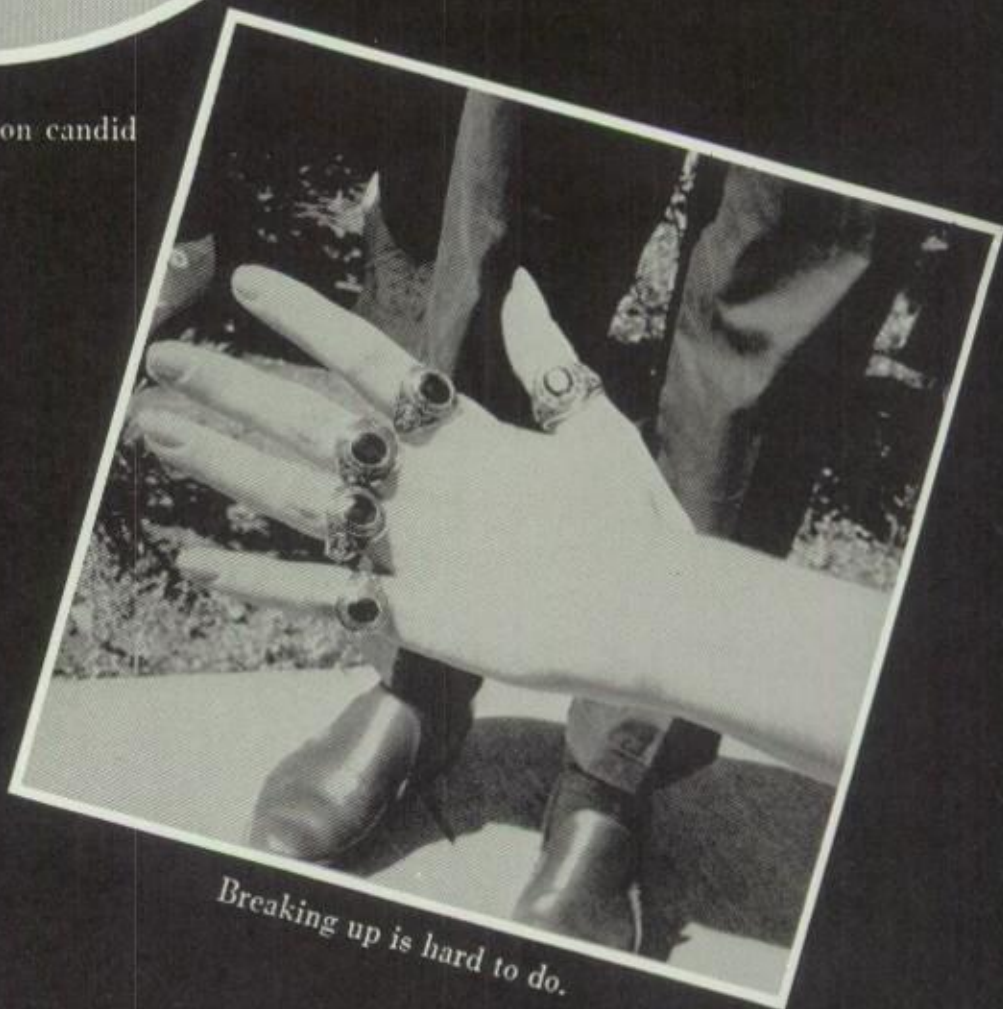

Seniors Alan, Jimmy, and Warner are first in line at White Station's bargain sale on school books.

Smile, you're on candid camera!

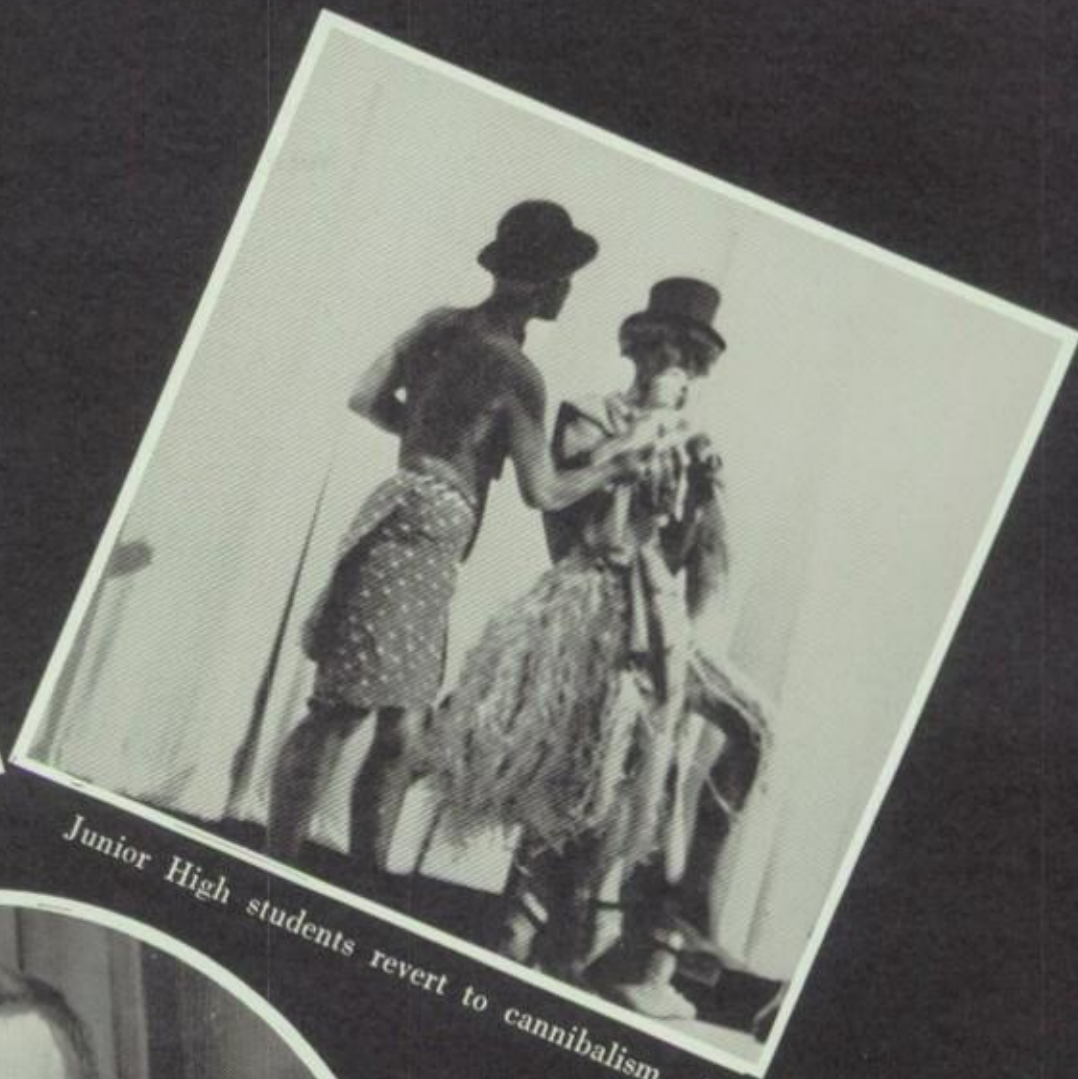

Weary boys pause for refreshments.

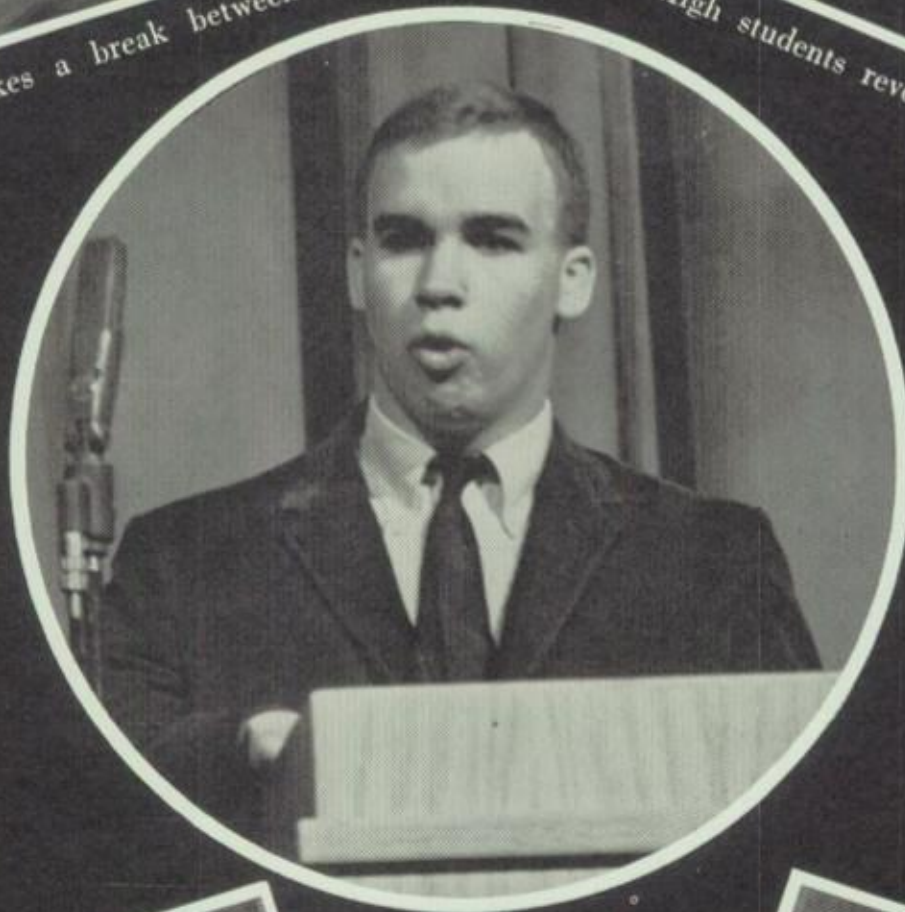

Breaking up is hard to do.

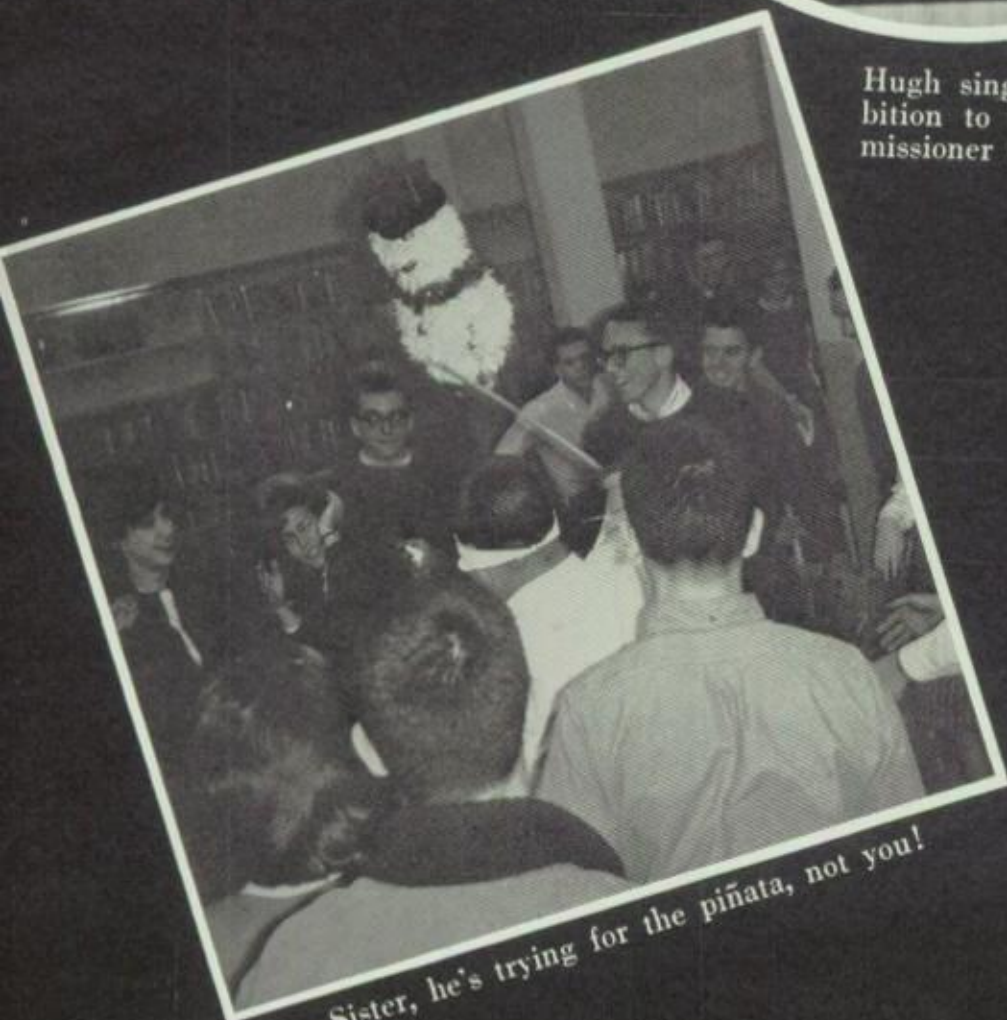

Warner takes a break between classes.

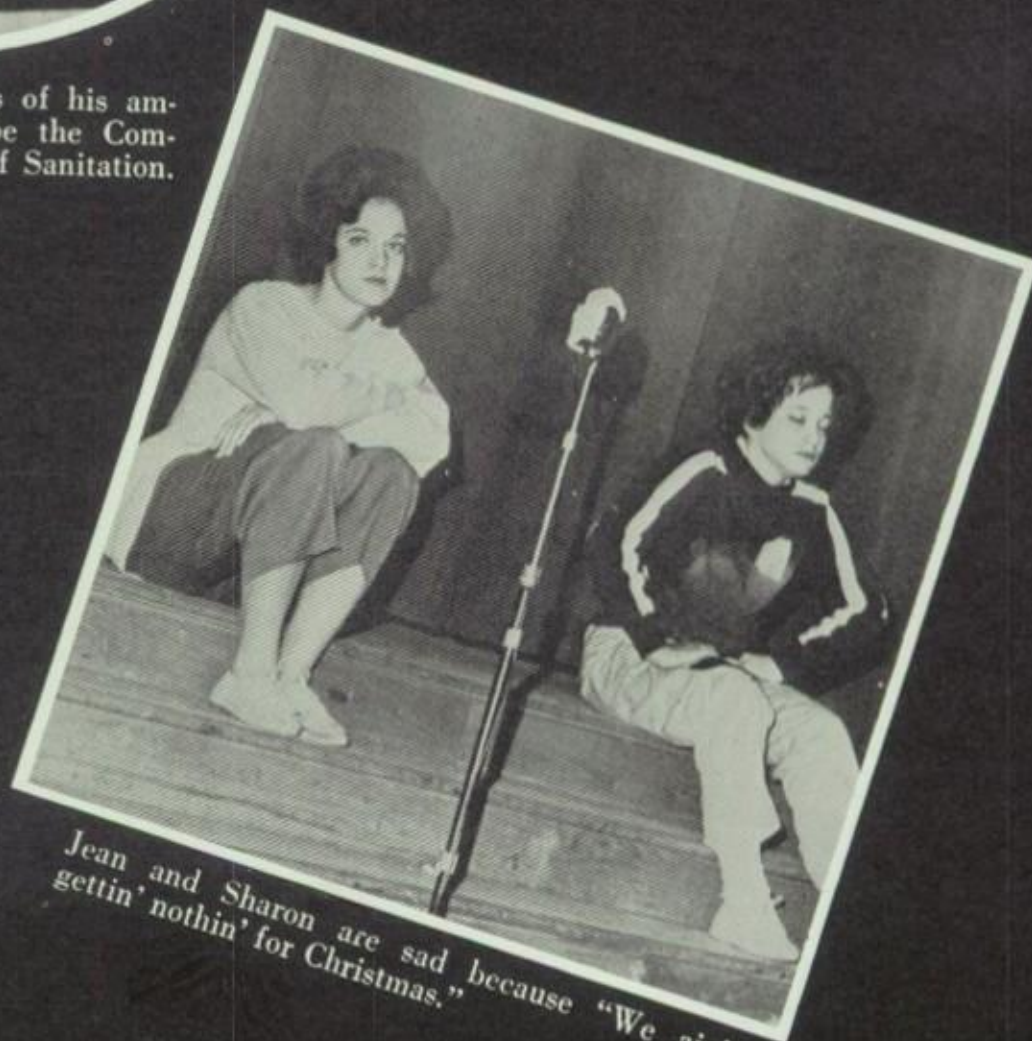

Junior High students revert to cannibalism.

Hugh sings of his ambition to be the Commissioner of Sanitation.

Sister, he's trying for the piñata, not you!

Jean and Sharon are sad because "We ain't gettin' nothin' for Christmas."

A Russian Santa Claus hurries to deliver his presents.

Tom Shoemake prepares to go South for the winter.

The Speech Department re-enacts the Christmas Story.

At White Station's beauty contest these junior high entrants made a hit!

The Junior High sings along with Mitch.

Mrs. Walker was happily surprised when she received a chafing dish from the Glee Club at her going-away party.

Nine out of ten White Station supporters eat Booster Club pancakes.

Bobby Linsley and Ricki Martin show their acting ability in "Suppressed Desires."

The solemn faces and the stark scenery are reflected in the senior drama, "The Valiant."

Gentleman Jim retrieves Cheryl's book in "Love Errant."

Under the guidance of the student-elected officers, the Student Council of White Station has endeavored to serve the student body by sponsoring social, school, and community projects. This year the Student Council sponsored two successful social projects: a Homecoming Football Dance and a Homecoming Basketball Dance. Among the various fund raising ideas was the selling of Homecoming buttons and car stickers. For the community, the Student Council participated in the annual Teenage March of Dimes Drive.

Rusty and Buddy are caught in the act.

Under the leadership of Mell Brooks, the 1962-63 Key Club worked its way to one of the most successful years since its beginning in 1956. Striving to win the coveted "Best Achievement" award of the district that includes all of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Tennessee, the Key Club completed such projects as the annual car wash, publication of the Buzzbook, aid to the Home for the Incurables, and a trip to the Memphis Museum for fifteen orphan boys. Ending the year with a trip to the District Convention at Lafayette, Louisiana, the Key Club feels that they have fulfilled their motto, "We Build."

As we type and re-type copy sheets, schedule hundreds of pictures, think of ingenious captions, and rush frantically to meet each deadline, the SHIELD staff strives to preserve for White Station students memories of the past year. Many various fields offer staff members opportunities to use their talents and abilities. Essential to a well-balanced and attractive annual is the application of artistic ability in layout and cover design. Finding unique and original ways of presenting the feature and activity sections requires persons with creative ability, and giving variety to page after page of classes calls for organization and ingenuity. The circulation and business staffs must spend many tedious hours selling ads, promoting the sale of yearbooks, and keeping the bank account accurate. Photography immortalizes the "once-in-a-life-time" pass interception or award-winning stage performance. Pictures alone cannot tell the year's story; play-by-play accounts of exciting sports events, well-written stories concerning school activities and clubs, and witty, eye-catching captions are equally essential contributions to the publication of the SHIELD.

For the past three years, the SCROLL has been awarded first place accreditation by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the International Quill and Scroll Rating Services. To join the writing staff, an applicant must successfully complete one of the training programs held in the early spring and in the fall. A similar, but shorter program is held for students applying for the business staff. In addition to their regular staff work, the SCROLL staff sponsors an elementary school literary magazine.

New inductees take their oath to the Honor Society.

Supporting their school through service, maintaining high standards in character, and exhibiting outstanding ability in leadership and scholarship—these are the cardinal virtues of members of the National Honor Society. Five per cent of the junior class is inducted in the spring, and ten per cent of the senior class is inducted the next fall. All members must have a 3-2 point average. Led by Mrs. John Millard and Mr. Adrian McClaren, White Station's chapter sold Yell-a-phones to promote school spirit, distributed honor roll ribbons, and held the biannual induction and banquet.

The basic aim of the White Station P.T.A. "since its beginning has been to help parents, teachers, and other interested persons to gain knowledge of the child—his growth, his development, his needs." One of its projects, the Spaghetti Supper and Open House; provided an opportunity for visiting the school and the teachers and raised money for the funds for operating and educational expenses and school improvements and awards. This year the P.T.A. helped parents to enrich their child's education by providing group meetings based on grade levels, by sponsoring A Survey of Safety Needs at White Station, and by conducting a Medical Self-Help Program. Such speakers as Mr. William D. Galbreath, president of the Board of Education, and Mr. Vincent de Frank, conductor of the Memphis Symphony, presented informative talks at the P.T.A.'s monthly meetings.

Under the leadership of its present officers, the Booster Club has made a sincere effort to fulfill its purpose for the current school year by the foundation of the Rush W. Siler Scholarship awards; by the establishment and promotion, including the purchase of all equipment and the payment of the coaches, of the Pee-Wee Football Program; by the presentation of a gold cup to the White Station Baseball Team—American Legion Champions; by the provision of the transportation and milk used at the Football Training Camp; by the purchase of complete equipment for the establishment of a modern training room for all athletic teams; and by the sale of season tickets for the 1962 football season, which established a new record for the number of adult season tickets sold.

Projects for the 1963 season are already underway. The booster Club firmly believes that through dedicated leadership and action we're helping make a better White Station School and invite all interested parents to join with us in this purpose.

The White Station Spartans began building their team at football camp in Durant, Mississippi. The Spartan footballers came home with a fighting spirit that lasted the entire season. In the first game of the season we fell to defeat at the hands of the Frayser Rams. Though we lost to Frayser, we gained valuable experience which helped us roll over Kingsbury in our second game. The next three Friday nights were bleak ones for the Spartans. We lost to Christian Brothers, then to East High; and finally Overton squeaked by with a narrow margin. On Homecoming Night the Spartan spirit was at an all-time high. White Station fought hard and won a smashing victory over Humes to capture the Homecoming Honors.

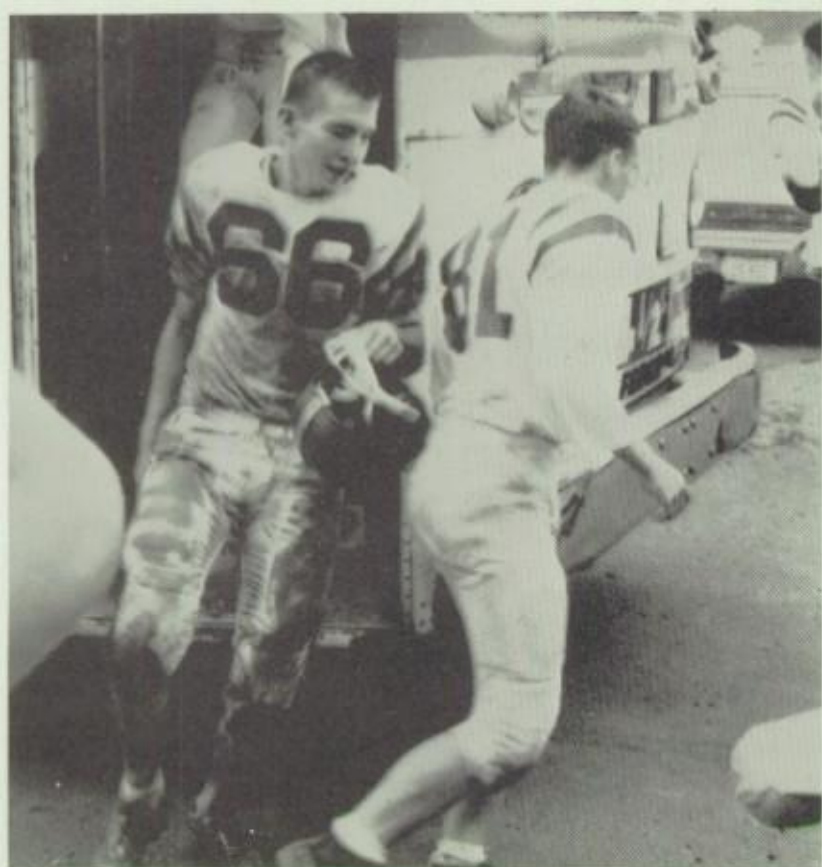

Hard hitting is seen in the White Station "B" team as they play Overton.

The defensive line digs in and holds the East runner for no gain.

The sweet smell of success.

Mike Wadley makes an end sweep for good yardage.

On a road game White Station fell to the powerful Jonesboro Golden Hurricanes. Our next game was the most exciting of the season as we claimed a hard fought victory over Treadwell by the margin of a field goal. Messick won against a determined Spartan team, and we brought our season to a close by a decisive victory over the Memphis University School Owls.

The Captain for the 1962 season was Buddy Pugh and the Co-Captain was Tommy Sommerville. Head Coach Kenneth Floyd, Backfield Coach Tommy Spires, and Line Coach Ken Mathis did a fine job this year; and with many lettermen returning, they are looking forward to an even better season next year.

Edwin Hill, Charles Lominac, and Joe Horton work hard as football managers.

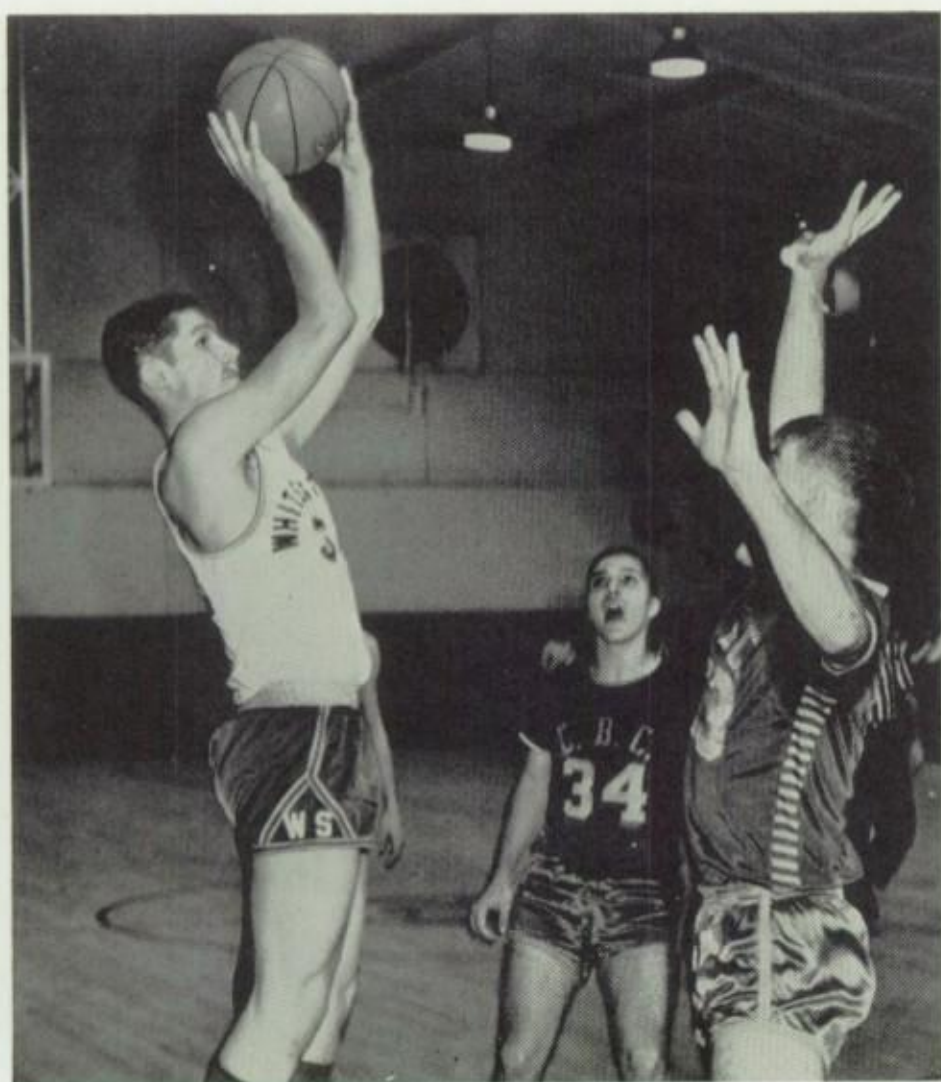

Freddy Raby and Matt Wilkins combine to stop a potential score.

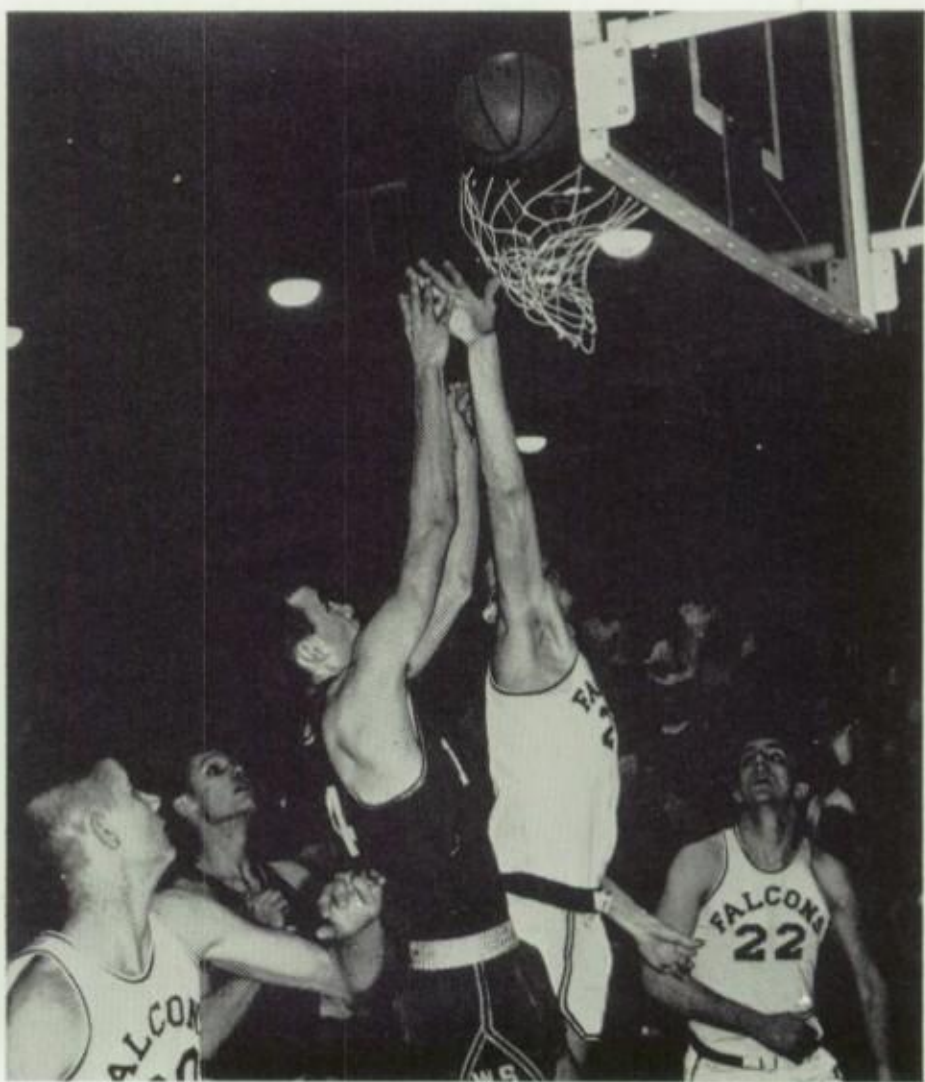

Jimmy Roberts stretches for the tip.

Basketball

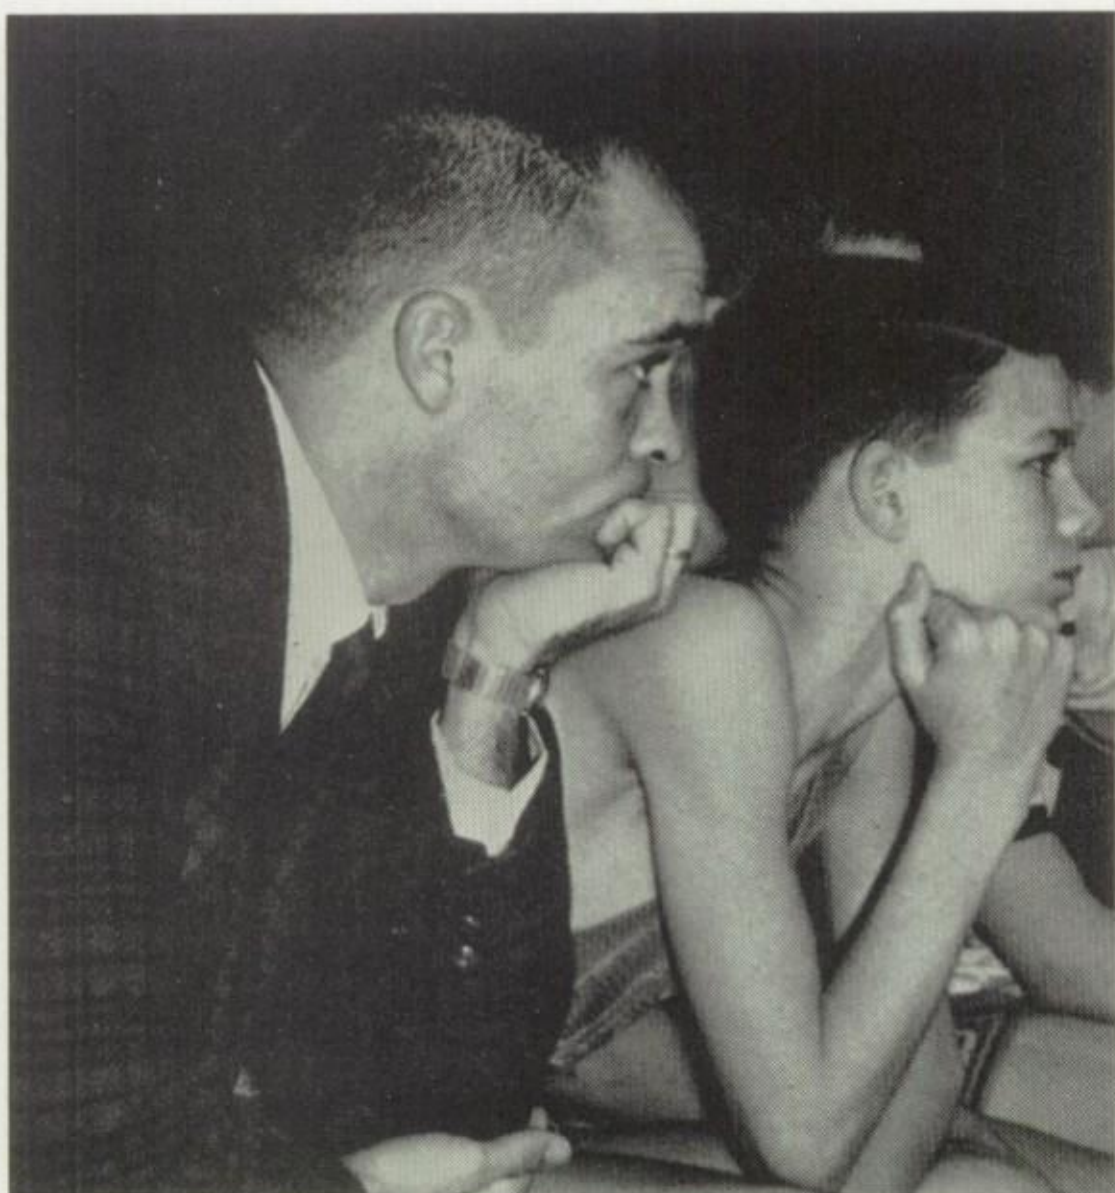

"Determined Jack" Tilton eyes the goal for a shot.

Baker tips one in for two.

Tension mounts as Jim Murphy concentrates on a foul shot.

Coach Sam Lowry watches intently during a crucial play.

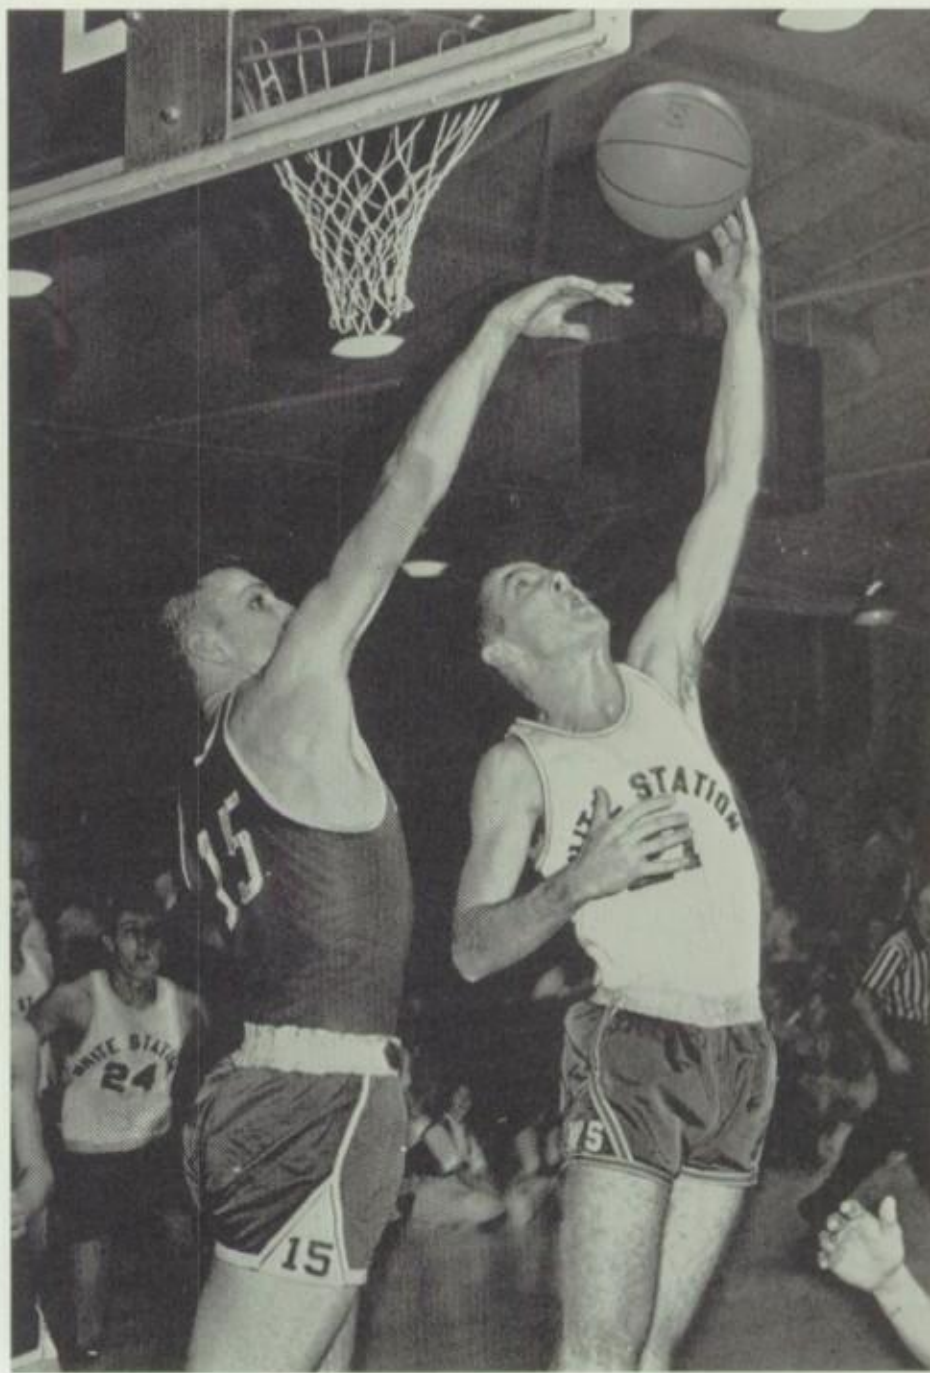

By defeating the state-ranked Treadwell Eagles on Homecoming night, the Spartans highlighted their 1963 season. Completing the season with nine wins and seventeen losses, the Spartan quintet was always a threat.

The Spartan five made Associated Press news with their phenomenal ten over-time game with Westside.

After urging his team on to victory over East High, Coach Sam Lowry stated, "At the time and under the circumstances, this was one of our most important wins."

Thomas and Roberts scramble for a rebound.

Huff successfully evades a Treadwell defender.

In the Treadwell victory, the team ran a stall the entire second half, holding Treadwell to only two free throws for a 32 to 29 victory.

Led by team captain Robert Huff and aided by the sharp-shooting of Jimmy Roberts, C. B. Baker, and Jack Tilton, the Spartan team showed its power at the MUS tournament. The team defeated the state-ranked Overton Rebels and then went on to capture the MUS tournament by defeating the MUS Owls, 61 to 48.

Jack Tilton was named to the Basketball Third Team All-Memphis Squad.

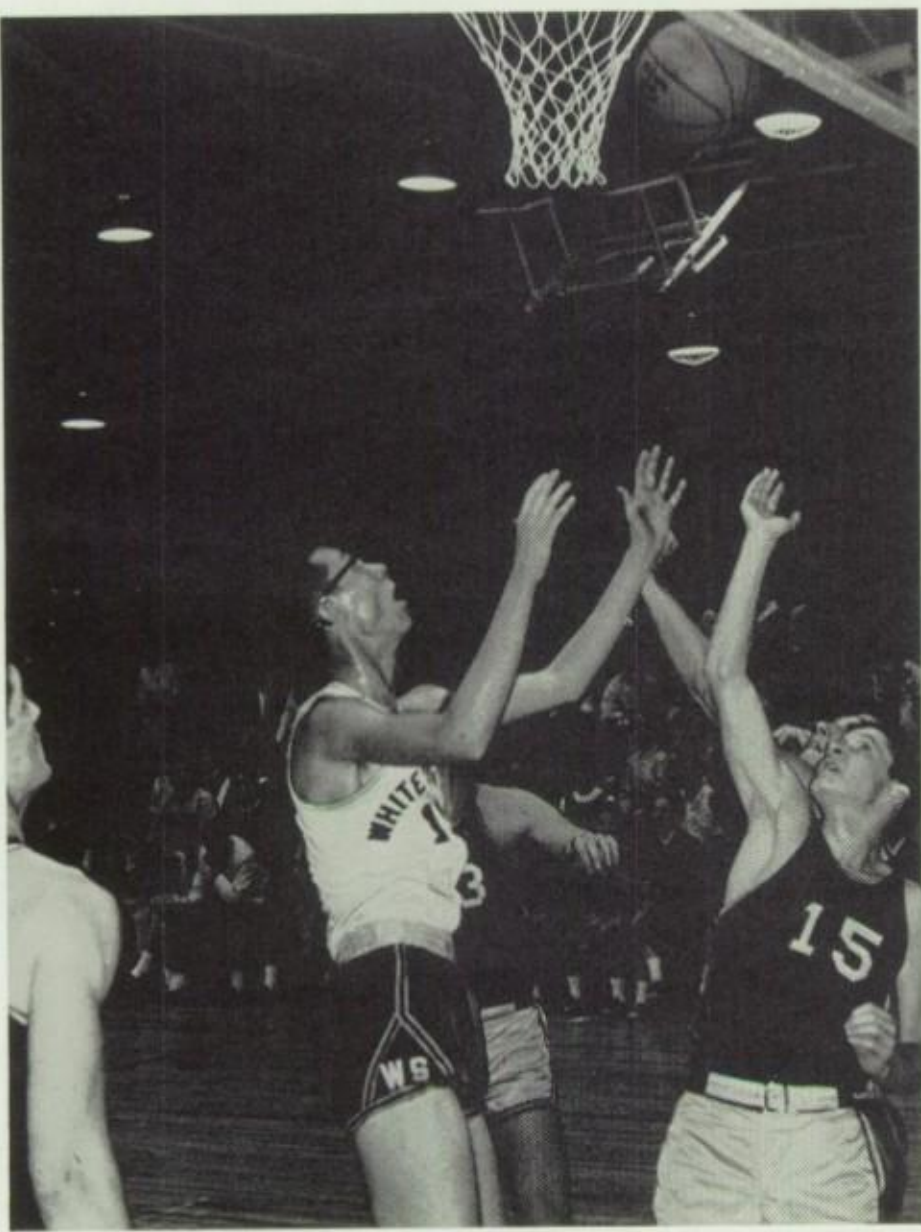

All eyes are on the action as anxious Spartans view a game.

"B" TEAM

With an outstanding record of twenty wins against only six losses, the Spartan "B" team completed the 1963 season and showed real potential. John Mathieu, Jim Murphy, Dick Cockrell, Rick Howe, and Charles Cameron gained valuable experience in "B" team competition. These Spartan players will be carrying the weight of White Station's varsity schedule next year.

CHEERLEADERS, left to right, FIRST ROW: Patty Jenkins, Mary Katherine Higginbotham. SECOND ROW: Carol Brooks, Judy Cole. THIRD ROW: Martha Delius, Janet Putnam. FOURTH ROW: Dottie Johnson, Sharon Atkins. FIFTH ROW: Patti Jones, Camille Lane.

The cheerleaders began their year by learning and perfecting their cheers and dance routines in the early morning hours of mid-July, sometimes beating the football team to practice. In the early fall the ten girls attended a cheerleading clinic at Martin, Tennessee. From this session they brought back the now old favorite "Choo Choo Cheer." Through the football season the cheerleaders encouraged pep and enthusiasm at the football games and pep meetings. One such pep meeting at the end of the football season honored the senior players with the presentation of miniature footballs and poems written by the cheerleaders. The work of the cheerleaders continued through the basketball season as they continued to boost Spartan spirit, yet this job proved to be more fun than work to the enthusiastic girls. Each week a dinner was held at one of the cheerleaders' homes. These weekly gatherings brought the group closer together while giving them a chance to discuss their ideas and ideals about cheerleading. This year under their new sponsor, Mrs. Don Rogers, the cheerleaders guided the Spartans to greater school spirit and sportsmanship, while maintaining the high standards set by White Station's past cheerleaders.

Twenty cheerleading finalists try out before the student body.

The Cheerleaders snap into action.

"We're going to wash those Eagles right out of our hair."

Mrs. Rogers gives the cheerleaders a word of encouragement before a pep meeting.

Senior Baseball

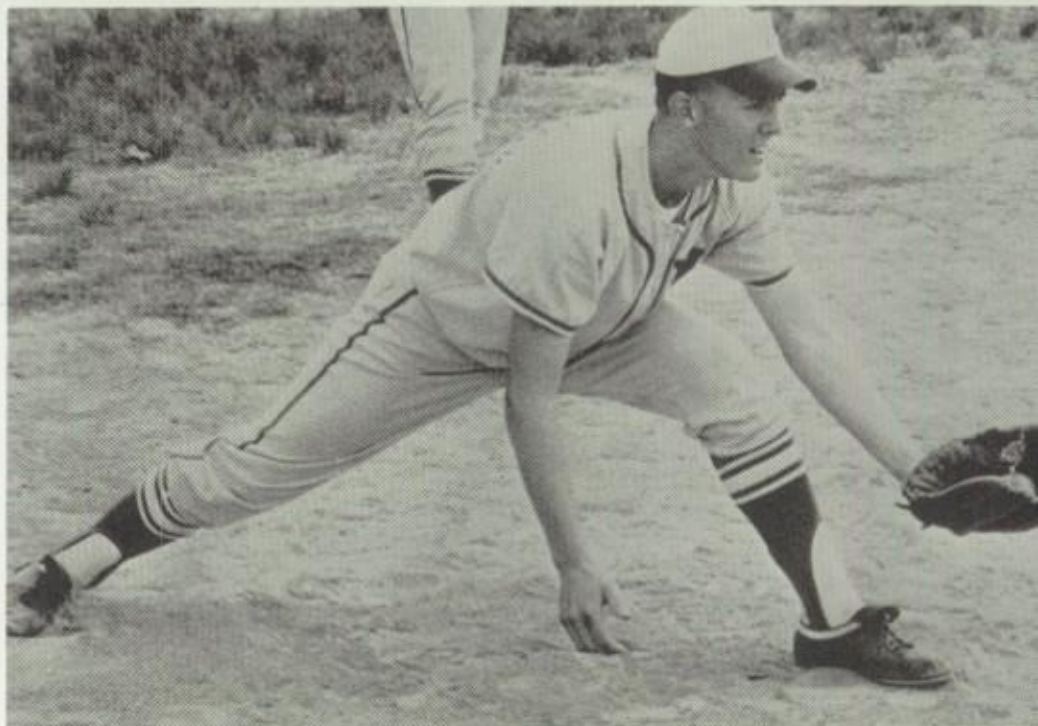

The Spartan nine experienced one of its finest seasons this year, finishing the regular schedule with eight wins and four losses. This left them in a tie for second place in the Eastern Division. They lost the play-off game to Messick in a twelve-inning heartbreaker.

The Spartans showed their true power in a 23-0 victory over East High. The team collected a total of 21 hits, with six players getting three or more hits apiece. One of the most exciting games of the season was White Station's victory over Treadwell. Steve Stone went the distance, allowing only three hits and giving up one base-on-balls. Stone was provided with the winning run in the fourth inning when Jack Tilton laid down a perfect squeeze bunt as Freddy Raby scored from third base.

The White Station baseballers were well represented on the All-Memphis Teams. Bill Dowdle was selected to the first team All-Memphis; Welch Agnew, Jack Tilton, and Steve Stone to the All-Division Team; and Ricky Cook was awarded Honorable Mention.

Rod Phillips Photographer

Without Rod's many extra hours of hard work the SHIELD staff could never have met its deadlines. Making extra prints, climbing to precarious heights in order to get fifty people in one picture, and making numerous trips to White Station to take unscheduled pictures, Rod's helpful suggestions and genuine interest in assisting us are greatly appreciated!
